Vision/Mission/Values:

The mission of the College of Education is to prepare educators who have the knowledge, skills, dispositions, and ethics that ensure equity and excellence for all students in a culturally diverse, technologically complex, global community.

The philosophy of the Single Subject Credential Program at San Jose State University is based on a vision of professional educators who can function effectively and sensitively in the multicultural, multilingual, and technologically complex environment of today's secondary schools. The faculty is committed to preparing teachers who are critical and reflective practitioners prepared to:

- 1. Make informed and thoughtful decisions in their daily practice;
- 2. Serve in diverse educational contexts;
- 3. Promote equity, respect for person, and social justice; and
- 4. Provide fair-minded and responsive instruction for ethnically and linguistically diverse populations.

University Policy Information

Academic Integrity (from the Office of Judicial Affairs):

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San José State University and the University's Academic Integrity Policy, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty are required to report all infractions to the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The policy on academic integrity can be found at http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct.

Students should know that the University's Academic Integrity Policy is located at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/static/catalog/integrity.html

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University's integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The website for Student Conduct and Ethical Development is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/judicial_affairs/index.html

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Academic Integrity Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act.

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the DRC (Disability Resource Center) to establish a record of their disability.

Campus policy in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act:

University Resources and Services Student Technology Resources (Optional). Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

Learning Assistance Resource Center (Optional). The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) is located in Room 600 in the Student Services Center. It is designed to assist students in the development of their full academic potential and to motivate them to become self-directed learners. The center provides support services, such as skills assessment, individual or group tutorials, subject advising, learning assistance, summer academic preparation and basic skills development. The LARC website is located at http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/

SJSU Writing Center (Optional). The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. Professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges staff the Center. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. To communicate with The Writing Center, call 1-408-924-2308 or email them at writingcenter@sjsu.edu

Course Description, Purpose, Objectives

The purpose of English Methods is to introduce you to classroom practices suited to the teaching of English at the middle and high school levels in California, with particular attention to working with English Learners and fostering all students' academic language development.

We will pursue this goal through

- assigned readings, discussions, orals, and written assignments designed to introduce you to teaching English courses and to the framework and standards (Common Core and ELD) that California uses to establish its goals and practices in the teaching of English;
- collaboration and demonstration practices with your classmates; and
- completion of Unit and Lesson plans, including the Pre-Signature Assignment and the COE required Signature Assignment

By the end of this course you will

- be familiar with an array of classroom practices to use to teach secondary English;
- have a "grammar of practice" regarding the use of formative assessment in the secondary English class;
- be able to demonstrate competence in lesson and unit planning;
- have increased your awareness about the importance of and how to support secondary students' language and learning needs;
- become skillful at reflecting critically on enacted lessons, Lesson Plans, and Unit Plans;
- have developed skills for providing formative feedback; and
- have experienced a variety of strategies for and the importance of class discussion and class debriefing in the secondary English classroom.

Course Activities/Assignments/Requirements: Instructional Activities:

- 1. Lectures
- 2. Presentations
- 3. Small group and whole class focused discussions
- 4. Experiential learning exercises mirroring typical 7-12th grade classroom activities

Assignments:

- 1. Readings of fiction and non-fiction
- 2. Written reflections and formative assessments;
- 3. Orals to assess content knowledge, and personal vocal and interpretive skills and physical presence
- 4. Demonstrations of lesson segments, produced individually and in collaboration
- 5. Unit and Lesson plans, and other classroom staples
- 6. Pre-Signature Assignment
- 7. Signature Assignment as required by the Lurie College of Education for all Methods students.

Class Participation: Students are expected to

- 1. engage fully and professionally in discussions and activities
- 2. read all assigned fiction & non-fiction and submit course work on time
- 3. listen thoughtfully and reflectively to all ideas
- 4. attend all class sessions and contact the instructor as necessary

Office Hours: Students are encouraged to contact me whenever a question arises, and for one-on-one tutorials to prepare for the Pre-Signature and Signature Assignments.

Grading Criteria

Participation/engagement in class activities	25%
Formal Oral Presentations (4)	25%
Assessments (oral and written, reading quizzes)	25%
Unit and Lesson planning (demonstrable progress noted-
Pre Signature to Signature Assignment)	25%
Total	100%

- 1. Student must complete all assignments, both written and oral, to receive a passing grade (B or higher as established by the COE) for this course;
- 2. All assignments (except in-class work) must be typed and turned in on the due date unless extension is granted by instructor;
- 3. All written assignments must meet standards of academic and professional quality. Unless so stated, all written essay assignments must be typed, double spaced, paginated, free of spelling and grammatical errors. All page limits must be observed when required. Lesson and Unit Plan templates will be provided and must be used.
- 4. The quality of work and adherence to these guidelines will be considered in the final grade;
- 5. An "incomplete" grade will not be given except for serious medical or personal emergency circumstances, which must be communicated and agreed upon by instructor.

Final Grades by Percentile:

A traditional grading scale is used to assign final grades as follows:

A + = 98-100%, A = 94-97%, A - = 90-93%,

B+ = 87 - 89%, B= 84 - 86%,

Percentiles lower than 84%: student will need to repeat the course as required by the Lurie COE.

Signature Assignment: Unit Plan-Lesson Plans-Performance Task-Written Components Complete details regarding this assignment will be provided in class throughout the semester.

You will create a 5-Day Unit Plan and the 5 accompanying Lesson Plans for a class of heterogeneous ninth graders, one-third of whom are officially designated English Learners. The number of ninth graders in your class is 28 (7 groups of 4).

Your work will be based on your choice of either To Kill a Mockingbird or Romeo and Juliet.

The Unit Plan (calendar format) will have a culminating, important Performance Task (a written component) for Formative Assessment that students would be expected to complete. (See below). The Unit Plan itself should consist of a variety of teaching/learning strategies that scaffold student learning, as well as other components we will address in class. This Unit Plan should be completed in a 'calendar style' table format.

- You are also required to complete five Lesson Plans using the template provided by the English Department program for Secondary Education. (This will be provided to you.) Each Lesson Plan will require you to provide the following prior to addressing the segments of the actual lesson:
 - o Goals for student learning,
 - o Objectives (SWBAT: students will be able to...),
 - o Enduring Understandings (see Wiggins and McTighe's Understanding by Design for example EUs), characteristics of EUs,
 - o CA Common Core State Standards (CCSSs) closely linked to the unit's EU,
 - o English Language Development Standard closely linked to the unit's EU and the Performance Task of the unit.
 - o Segments of the lesson. (Actual teaching portion). (These will be covered in class with all particulars practiced.)
- The Performance Task (a major student activity) may be wholly your own or one that you revise to sensibly fit your unit. This Performance Task Handout will describe the culminating Performance Task of your unit and include these components:
 - o Context/Relevancy/Purpose: Why are you asking your students to do this Performance Task and what specifically are you assessing?
 - o Task Instructions
 - o Due Date
 - Other Requirements and/or Accommodations (Use this Unit Plan Assignment Description Handout as an example)
 - One Rubric for your Performance Task that should have 4-5 scoring levels and 4-5 evaluative criteria. The rubric may be wholly your own or one that you revise to sensibly fit your purposes.
- The Unit Overview paper which explains your rationale for segments of the unit including assessment and expectations for student learning. Refer to the specific Signature Assignment handout for particulars, page requirements, and etc.
- The Oral Component will be completed in class- see above syllabus-. Students should Xerox copies of their Lesson Plan, as applicable to the assignment, for all members of the class. The Oral component will be fully explained in class, but essentially allows you to teach a small portion from one lesson of that unit.
