Course Description

ENGL 1A Course Description

General Course Description

English 1 is an introductory writing course that will help you understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, you will develop clear thinking and effective writing that give form and coherence to complex ideas. In English 1A you will practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

Section-Specific Course Description

Creativity, sustainability, and global citizenship—making something, keeping it, and sharing it—are the three most important issues of your generation, perhaps more so than any other generation before yours. Masha Gessen’s award-winning nonfiction novel Words Will Break Cement will provide the forum to discuss these three significant ways in which contemporary society develops. Are the members of the notorious Russian punk rock band, Pussy Riot, criminals or revolutionary artists? How does Vladimir Putin’s oligarchical government affect the environment and citizens’ rights? Does what happen in Russia stay in Russia, or do the decisions made there affect the rest of the world? This is the world that you inherit, ready for you to take charge. This is your time to seize opportunities and make wise decisions and to develop your own personal voice by polishing your writing skills on these three important themes.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to:

1. Read actively and rhetorically.
2. Perform essential tasks in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performances
3. Articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of text, such as purpose, audience, context and rhetorical appeals
4. Integrate the ideas of yours and others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres.
5. Demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

GE A2 Course Description

SJSU classes are designed such that in order for you to be successful, you are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on.

ENGL 1A fulfills your written communication general education requirement. Courses in GE Area 2 cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing at the university. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. A passing grade of C- or better signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

ENGL 1A Course Objectives

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: Writing assignments shall give students repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and students should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least three essays shall be written in class. ENGL 1A classes require out-of-class essays too.

You will receive frequent evaluations of your writing. Evaluative comments will be substantive, addressing both the logic of the argument and the quality and form of the writing. Comments will encourage and acknowledge your success as well as note problems and suggest ways to improve.

Reading: In addition to being writing intensive, ENGL1A is also a reading course. You will read a variety of rhetorical and professional works on global citizenship, sustainability, and creativity. All readings will include useful models of writing for academic, general, and specific audiences.

Writing Portfolio: At the end of the semester you will compile a portfolio of your writing that documents how you met the learning goals of the course.

Final Exam: An in-class essay to be graded by the department rubric.

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practice. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Final Examination or Evaluation

The final exam will be a personal response essay based upon the student's understanding of our reader, Masha Gessen's Words Will Break Cement.

Grading Policy: A-F.

A+=100, A= 95, A-=90: Excellent writing that is informative, persuasive, correct
B+=89, B=85, B-=80: Above average writing that is organized, developed, and effective

C+=79, C=75, C-=70: Satisfactory writing that is clear, coherent, and complete
D+=69, D=65, D-=60: Unsatisfactory writing that is unclear, incoherent, and incorrect
F=50: Writing that is off-topic, late, brief

NOTE: A plus (+) sign added to a letter grade indicates the highest performance or value within its range while a minus (-) sign indicates the lowest performance or value within its range.

Final Average will be determined by the breakdown of these grades:

Three 1000-word essays at 30% to be graded on the A-F scale.

Four 500-word preliminary drafts at 20% to be graded on the A-F scale.

One 2000-word writer's journal at 20% to be graded on the A-F scale.

Ten quizzes at 10% to be graded on the 100-point scale.

Ten participation grades (homework, assessment essay, etc.) at 10% to be graded on the 100-point scale.

One final exam at 10% to be graded on the A-F scale.

“This course must be passed with a C- or better as a CSU graduation requirement.”

Classroom Protocol

All outside work must computer-generated drafts submitted as hard copies. There is no provision for late work. Please contact me the day you are absent when work is due.
