Classroom Protocol

While engaging with peers and assignments, students are to be respectful of the unique characteristics and qualities that make each of us who we are. In class, discussion is welcome and encouraged, but comments found to be intentionally offensive, disrespectful, or combative are not allowed. Likewise, in-class discussions, texts/readings/viewings, and projects/activities may include materials that can be contentious and even potentially upsetting to you or others. We may encounter materials that differ from and perhaps challenge our ideas, beliefs, and understanding of reality. Students are encouraged to discuss issues about such materials with me. If for any reason such material causes you alarm, I encourage you to speak with me directly at your earliest convenience.

Additionally, any student that needs accommodations or assistive technology due to a disability should work with the Accessible Education Center \(AEC\) (<https://www.sjsu.edu/aec/>), and the instructor. If you have special needs or accommodations requests, see me as soon as possible. Failure to do so may result in interruption or slowing of accommodations process.

CSU Work Stoppage Note

Important note about a possible work stoppage during the semester:

The California Faculty Association (the labor union of Lecturers, Professors, Coaches, Counselors, and Librarians across the 23 CSU campuses) is in a difficult contract dispute with California State University management. It is possible that we will call a strike or other work stoppage this term. I promise to promptly inform you of any schedule disruption. Our working conditions are your learning conditions; we seek to protect both. For further information go to www.cfabargaining.org (<http://www.cfabargaining.org/>).

Canvas gives you access to Google docs for collaborations, as well as presentation software. Canvas includes video and audio recording abilities with Studio. If you need help to access these technologies, please contact the Student Technology Service Desk.

As a student, you are entitled to free access to Microsoft Office, so visit this link to the Microsoft Office \(https://ischool.sjsu.edu/post/microsoft-office\) website if that is something you need (you must use your SJSU email, which you can access by visiting this link to the most popular one.SJSU applications \(https://one.sjsu.edu/\) and then by clicking on “My Email G Suite”).

ENGL 1A - Course Description

ENGL 1A

First Year Writing is an introductory writing course that will help you understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, you will learn to think clearly and write effectively as you give form and coherence to complex ideas. You will explore writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

Section 76

But what about those situations? Everyday we all have exchanges of ideas and voice, and those interactions can be communicated in a variety of ways. You’ve probably sent a tweet before. Maybe you’ve performed at a cafe for the new EP you just dropped. Perhaps you enjoy discussing the latest athletic event and the merits of the judging system. All fun things. But have you also driven by a billboard? Or watched a political debate? How about painfully struggled through the 30-second ad during your favorite show on [insert streaming service]? Each of those situations uses rhetoric to try and convince someone of something. And it all starts with writing.

In this course, we're going to examine how different audiences require different writing styles, tonality, verbiage, and how context can morph when multimodal elements are part of the writing experience. By exploring media, professional rhetoric, argumentation, and systems you'll become familiar with here at SJSU, you'll begin to have a better understanding of what rhetoric is, as well as what and how writing affects it. The goal of this course is to help you develop your voice, and also to articulate it effectively and persuasively by understanding the rhetorical situation of audience, purpose, and context, and by using the rhetorical strategies you learn and observe from others.

First-Year Writing policies are listed at the following website: <https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php> (<https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php>)

GE Area A2: Written Communication

Written Communication I courses cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing at the university. 1. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the content, context, effectiveness, and forms of written communication;
2. perform essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing);
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. integrate their ideas and those of others by synthesizing, explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres; and

Course Requirements and Assignments

Course Requirements, Time Commitments, & Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45-hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

ENGL 1A is a 3-unit course. That means we are signing up to do a minimum of 9-hours of study per week just for this class. 2½ hours will be class time. The remaining 7½ hours a week, you will work on your own or with your peers to prepare for class and complete reading and writing assignments. This class requires a minimum of 8,000 words, at least 4,000 of which must be in revised final draft form. I have designed the work using this math to guide us. I will refer to it often to help you manage this workload over the semester.

Media Report: Media of your choosing (possible presentation) - (GELO 2, 4, 5)

Choose an example of a written medium (film, song, poem, novel, autobiography, short story, graphic novel, newspaper column, etc.) and write a 3-page report, plus sources cited page (4 pages total). What about the writing works for you? How has it influenced works within and outside its medium? How does the work influence your own writing?

Critical Essay: Research and Argumentative essay with annotated bibliography (possible presentation) - (GELO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Choose an example of rhetoric and write a 4-page report, plus annotated bibliography (5 pages total). Who is the intended audience? Does the source effectively or ineffectively accomplish its goal from an audience perspective? How could the example rhetoric have been improved?

Persuasive Writing: Cover letter, CV/Resume, etc. - (GELO 2, 3, 5)

Explore good (and bad!) examples of cover letters and resumes. Organize your experiences, skills, and accomplishments, as you learn how to write about and market yourself in a professional setting - often times, before you even know the audience.

In-class writings: Selection of writings from prompts given in class - (GELO 5)

Students will engage in writing activities in response to prompts given in class (no make-ups).

You will also participate in peer review activities.

Workshops - (GELO 2, 4)

Small groups and entire class workshops will provide focused critique and analysis of existing works, mediums, and students' proposed writing projects.

Reading Responses - (GELO 1)

Students will summarize weekly readings, reflect on readings as they pertain to their own writing experience, and ask two questions they have about that week's readings (approx. 300-words).

Class participation

Discussions, peer reviews of presentations, attendance, etc.

Extra Credit

At instructor's discretion.

✓ Grading Information

Determination of Grades

Grading, Late Policy, and Missed Work

This course must be passed with a C- or better, as a CSU graduation requirement. This is a course with assignments totaling 100%, following the standard A-F scale, utilizing minimal grading. You must submit all work on time. Any unexcused late work will be graded down a full letter grade, after the announced deadline has passed. If there is a reason you cannot make a deadline (because life happens) contact me BEFORE THE DEADLINE, so that we may mitigate the situation with a plan of action.

Misuse of these policies by any one student will result in having this option removed for all students. Extra credit may be offered at various points throughout the semester at my discretion. All proposed regular assignment deadlines will be Mondays at 8:59 AM PT (unless otherwise indicated) with work uploaded to

Canvas. Deadline dates and times are subject to change, but I will notify the class of any proposed changes in advance.
