QUICK FAQS:

What are the hours? Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Where is it located and where do I enter? The space is in the Peer Connections space in the Student Services Center (SSC). You will go in the double doors on the San Fernando side of the SSC.

Do I need to bring my ID? Yes, you will need to swipe in and out of the space.

Do I need to make an appointment? No, this will be a first come, first served situation. There are limited spaces (approximately 30). If we have to create a waitlist system, we will take your name and number and call you when a space is open.

Can I study in a group? No, this is for individual study.

Can I print anything there? There is a printing station available for pay.

Will there be tutors or mentors there? No, there are no tutors available at this time in person. You may make a virtual tutor/mentor appointment.

Do I have to have in-person classes to use this space? No, this space is for all currently enrolled SJSU students - whether your classes are online or in-person.

Where should I park? How much does it cost? We recommend parking in the North Garage/10th St. Garage if you must drive, as it is right above the study hall space. Here is information about parking permits.
