

beyond mentoring day

A Special Event for Black Boys & Men

Wednesday,
January 28, 2015

10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Mt. Pleasant High School Theater
1750 South White Road
San Jose, CA 95127

Keynote by Special Guest Speaker!

Anthony Browder

is a cultural historian, author, publisher, education consultant and artist. Referred to as a "Cultural Memory Specialist," Mr. Browder seeks to challenge distorted perceptions of Africa perpetuated in both the media and America's classrooms.

Event Sponsor:

California Alliance of African American Educators (CAAAE);
www.caaae.org

Co-Sponsors:

East Side High School District; www.esuhsd.org

Santa Clara County Office of Education; www.sccoe.org

in remembrance of a great leader,
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

This special in-school event for Black males in grades middle through high school will feature:

Live Drumming

"Knowledge Is Power!"

Multi-media Presentation

Civil Rights & Justice Discussion

Police Encounter Safety: *Know Your Rights!

Cultural Arts/Artifacts Experience

Successful Black Men: They Will Be What They See!

Your Lives Matter to Us!

Thank you to the "Beyond Mentoring" event planning team and presenters for generously sharing their time, energy, talents and expertise on behalf of our beloved children and Black community.

Ret. Sgnt. Victor Barnett • Milan Balinton • Anthony Browder
Chandra Brooks • Wil Cason • Harold Clay • Keith Hames
Amelia Hill • Wilbur Jackson • Virginia Jones
Dr. Roxana Marachi • Pastor Jeff Moore • Gail Ortega
Ross Pusey • Dr. Angelica Ramsey • Debra Robinson
Debra Watkins • Walter Wilson

"Beyond Mentoring Day" has registered with the Black Star Project's national Black Male Achievement Movement to coincide with honoring Dr. King's birthday, and to commemorate his legacy of work during the month of January. For details, go to: www.blackstarproject.org.

Design: Benita Rivera ©01.15
belove@mac.com

