

Stream of Consciousness Essay
Due February 5, 2013

This essay will help you generate ideas for your argumentative essay topic. Choose an issue you have strong emotions about and type (one page, single spaced) without stopping. Some issues that are off topic because they have been overly argued in the media and are no longer valuable to write about in the college classroom include abortion and gay marriage. DO NOT go back and correct spelling or mechanics. This is not an essay you will revise or edit. This essay will be graded on completion and adherence to the prompt only.
